Extraordinary Profits of the National Banking System.

WALL STREET,
TUESDAY, June 25—6 P. M.
On 'Change to-day wheat and flour were quiet. e cotton market was dull and steady.

MONEY 4 A 5 PER CENT. The money market was steady at 4 a 5 per cent. there is some disposition to look for higher rates in with the wool clip and the preparation of moneyed stitutions for the payment of the usual July inrest and dividends; but nothing like stringency even an aggravated activity is looked for. After 1 1st prox. the savings banks will be under e necessity of holding a good deal of employed money in their uncertainty as the amount of funds that will will withdrawn by depositors, who, with the arival of interest day, are quite likely to change the aracter of their investment or move their money om one institution to another. The enormous profits of the NATIONAL BANKING

ystem (combined with special local advantages) re well exemplified in the case of the First National ik of this city, whose directors have just delared a quarterly dividend of ten per cent, payable fuly 1, and carried twenty per cent to surast year have been over sixty per cent on its apital, of which thirty-five per cent has been fivided to its stockholders and the balance carried

There is a lull in the business in commercial paper hd buyers are less numerous. Rates are steady nd range from five to seven per cent.

Foreign exchange was steady and moderately ac-ve. For sterling bills the prime bankers' rates 100% for sixty-day and 110% for sight, less a kerage of varying extent. GOVERNMENTS FIRM.

The government list was firm at a fractional imvement, in sympathy with quite a buoyant feelng in the London market, the effect of which was not detracted from by the course of the gold maret here. The following were the closing quota-ions:-United States currency sixes, 114½ a 114½; o. do., 1881, registered, 114% a 114%; do. do. coupon, 19% a 119%; do. five-twenties, registered, May and sovember, 113% a 114%; do. do., 1862, coupon, do., 13% a 114%; do. do., 1864, do. do., 113% a 114%; 10, do., 1865, do. do., 114½ a 114½; do. do., 1867, do. do., 1866, do. do., 114½ a 114½; do. do., 1867, egistered, January and July, 112½ a 112½; do. do., 865, conpon, do., 116¾ a 116½; do. do., 1867, do. do., 17¾ a 117½; do. do., 1868, do. do., 117 a 117½; do. en-forties, registered, 110% a 110%; do. do., cou-on, 111% a 111%; do. fives of 1881, registered, 112% 112%; do. do., coupon, 112% a 112%. SOUTHERN SECURITIES MORE ACTIVE.

The Southern State bonds were more active, ith, in several features, a considerable improvestop, wheat and corn will prove unusually large is fall, and that a more prosperous condition ame time a hope is entertained that the expected y, in view of which the so-called old bonds o Southern States will be certain to be most gen rously treated in all financial legislation. The firs adjustion of this state of feeling was given in the ld North Carolinas, which advanced about two per nt in to-day's dealings, closing strong at 35 a 3 he reaction in the new South Carolinas continued nd the July issues sold at 311/2, but were subse mently offered at 31. The Arkansas sevens were un up to 67% by the process known as "wash ure the securities subjected to it. Of cours must be very evident that these ands, which sold a few days since a a are not legitimately dealt in to-day at 6734 couris were strong in the vicinity of 98 ilt to get a quotation for them. FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

spondingly steady, the dial having moved only twice up to a quarter of four o'clock and thrice only in the remaining fifteen minutes of business, the excessive (?) activity in this closing quarter of an hour being due to the fact that a cart load of silver bars was driven under the windows of the Gold Room on its way to a European express company's office near by. Meantime the cable and the land wires had been busy in circulating rumors from Geneva and Washington that the ghost of the ques-tion of indirect damages had been finally laid by a decision of the tribunal deciaring such claims untenable. Despite this gratifying intelligence the effect on gold was to lower it only an eighth per cent—viz., to 113%. But soon after the wagon load of silver came along, and as it was also reported that a foreign banking house had put up $600,000 gold for shipment (at some future time not stated), gold stiffened to 113%—the closing reaction being due to considerable scepticism as to the genuineness of the silver bars which were paraded under the windows of the board. In the gold loan market the rates ranged from 2 to 3 per cent for carrying. The operations of the Gold Exchange Bank were as follows:—Gold cleared, $32,718,000; balances, $1,064,587; currency balances, $1,231.613. The Sub-Treasury paid out $130,000 on account of redeemed five-twenties, and $15,000 on account of interest. The course of the market is shown in the table :-

STOCKS DULL AND STRONG. The stock market was dull and quiet for the general list, and active and strong for Eric, North-western and Pacific Mail. Eric was subject to the stereotyped influence of the London quotation, which advanced enough to occasion a rise in this market to 57%. Pacific Mail felt the effect of the dissolution of another of the many injunctions and advanced to 73%. Northwestern was active, as if in the hands of a new party, and rose from 72% to 73%. Western Union sold at 75%. Otherwise the changes were slight, but almost entirely for the better, the general market being firm and closing with the day's improvement, great or little.

"WHEN THE SWALLOWS HOMEWARD PLY" A German Benevolent Society Arrested Under the New Law for Parading the Streets.

In the last Legislature was passed a law regulatpodies desiring to parade should first give six nours' notice to the Commissioners of Police, and request permission to parade, designating the

The first arrest for violation of this law came up before Justice Shandley in Essex Market yesterday. The Frankenberger Kranken Unter-Heitzung Society, which had been to Williamsburg and deposited the remains of one of brethren, came back over the Grand street ferry. Just as they reached this side a heavy shower came up, and they took to the sidewalk and its protective awnings, with a full brass band playing "When the Swallows Homeward Fly." The society with a long name did to look much like swallows; but they did look a good deal like drowned rats. They were making the best of their way home solacing themselves with the music, when, much to their consternation and grief, the president of their organization, John Candus, was laid violent hands upon, on the corner of Grand and Attorney streets, by Officer John Smith, of the Thirteenth precinct. The music stopped; the benevolent society was thrown into confusion worse than confounded, and a great deal of swearing and other unharmonious noises in high Dutch was the result. President John Candus, in full suit of wide black pants, black vest and long-tailed black frock coat, with a badge on his breast, was escorted to the Thirteenth ward station house and confronted with his august presence Captain McDonald, alias "Lightning Charlie."

The Captain smeit a cause calebre. He put on his regimentals and came with the prisoner to the Essex Market Court, which was already filled with the members of this benevolent society. President Candus stood before His Honor Judge Shandley, proud as an old Castilian and cool as an Indian sachem. He knew of no wrong he had been doing. He felt himself a much abused and injured man. The eyes of Germany were on him. When asked to speak for himself he shook his head expressively. The Judge called for the interpreter, but the interpreter could gather nothing from President Candus but the same dignified silence. Like his prototype, President Grant, he had nothing to say.

Captain McDonaid explained to the Judge the order under which he was arrested, and messengers were sent to and fro amid the rain and the storm for copies of this order. None were forth-coming.

The Judge Shandley delivered himself as follows:—"As no copy of this order has been sent to orethren, came back over the Grand street ferry. Just as they reached this side a heavy shower storm for copies of this order. None were forth-coming.

Then Judge Shandley delivered himself as fol-lows:—"As no copy of this order has been sent to this Court, and as I know of no offence which this man has committed, I must discharge him."

President Candus and his fity faithful followers and fellow mourners left the Court to drink, in cool-lemonade, the health of Judge Shandley, and con-fusion to the police authorities.

THE EXPLOSION IN NEW LONDON.

Yesterday morning the body of Mr. William Whitley, engineer of the steam lighter Wallace, which exploded her boiler near New London, Conn. on Monday morning, as heretofore fully reported in on Monday morning, as heretofore fully reported in the Herald, arrived in the city by steamer, and Coroner Schirmer gave a certificate, on which the remains were removed to the late residence of deceased, 448 Grove street, Jersey City. Deceased was about forty-six years of age and a native of this city. He has left a widow and four children, besides a large number of friends and acquaintances, to mourn his death.

THE NEW ORLEANS SENSATION.—Mrs. Jennie Bronson-Holbrook petitions the Eighth District Court, declaring that she has been constantly ill-treated by Alva M. Holbrook, her husband, since their marriage in New York, in 1894; that he has been unfaithful to his marital obligations; that he has surreptitiously procured a divorce from the Eighth District Court, which is a nullity, because she received no notice of the pendency of the suit; that the house on Constance street, occupied by her husband, is her private property; wherefore she prays for a divorce and for a separation of property, and pending this suit asks to be allowed alimony and to reside in said house. Judge Léaumont has given an order that she be authorized to prosecute the suit; that while it is pending she shall have possession of the house to reside therein, and that she bee, June 21.

MUNICIPAL AFFAIRS.

THE NEW COURT HOUSE.

Action of the Supervisors as to the Pay Roll of the Court House Commissioners— Meeting of the Committee Yesterday. A meeting of the Committee of the Board of Su-pervisors was held yesterday to consider the claims missioners in the maintenance of that building, but who were discharged on the 31st of May last. The Committee decided to recommend the payment of the pay roll, amounting to over $36,000, and also waited upon the Comptroller, requesting him to expedite, as far as possible, the payment of the claims. The pay roll has been previously published in the Herald, but it is quite a lengthy document. The period of service included in it extends from September, 1871, to May 31, 1872; with the first five months of last year the Board of Audit will have to deal with, and in the audit will require a certificate of personal service for each claim. It is obvious that the pay roll contains far more names than were necessary for the performance of the required duties, and it is this fact that will present a difficulty in the audit. The service rendered from January to June is a matter for which the Board of Supervisors is responsible, and the payment of which that Board will have to order. If the Court House Commissioners had no legal right to appoint the men on this pay roll and this question is raised, it will be the duty of the Board of Supervisors to consider whether they will accept the pay roll from January with all its obvious sinecures thick upon it. In the meantime there are many men who have honestly rendered the city service, and who are entitled to their claim, who are unable to obtain that which is honestly due to them.

Yesterday afternoon the newly appointed Janitor, with his scrubbers and cleaners, began the work of cleausing and sweeping the Court House. It was a kind of Augean stable process, and it will be several days yet before any perceptible change will be made in the floors and staircases of the marble building.

On Monday the committee of the Board of Supervisors will submit to the general meeting of the Board the names of the persons recommended for watchmen for the county buildings in the City Hall Park. waited upon the Comptroller, requesting him to

A DISPUTE AT THE FIFTH AVENUE HOTEL-

Daniel W. Barrett, a collector, residing at 768 Greenwich street, appeared before Justice Ledwith, at Jefferson Market, yesterday afternoon, and pre-ferred a complaint of disorderly conduct against George W. Wildey, a broker in Exchange place, residing at 24 West Twenty-second street. The com-plainant states that on Thursday last he met defendant in the porch of the Fifth Avenue Hotel, who swore at him, raised his walking stick towards him in a threatening manner, and concluded by spitting in his face three or four times. The defendant admitted spitting in Barrett's face, but claims it was done in self-defence, as the latter had grossly insulted him by making faces at him. A complaint of disorderly conduct was entertained against Wildey, on which judgment was suspended.
